

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rapid City – South Dakota

Former Prime Minister to Speak in Rapid City S.D.

International award winning author Stephan von Clinkerhoffen returned from a medal presentation in Rapid City, South Dakota to discover that Britain's former Prime Minister is due to speak there.

Rapid City is to host a "Conversation with David Cameron" as part of John T. Vucurevich Foundation's annual speaker series, on October 9th 2017.

In September, Literary Classics International Book Awards selected "The Hidden City of Chelldrah-ham" by Stephan von Clinkerhoffen as a gold medal winner in two categories from globally submitted entries, awards were presented in Rapid City.

Author Clinkerhoffen hails from the Cotswolds region in England, designated an "area of outstanding natural beauty." A district David Cameron has also called home for many years.

By working alongside American publishers with his book series Clinkerhoffen hopes there will be a knock-on effect increasing tourism and international trade with the Cotswolds region.

The latest book in the series "Belas Rift" brings characters from the fantasyland to the Cotswolds in England, viewing it from an outsider's point of view. "Belas Rift" visits Cheltenham, Winchcombe, and Sudeley Castle burial place of Henry VIII's wife Catherine Parr, it demonstrates some of the natural beauty and history of the Cotswolds.

For more information, to schedule an interview or request a copy of the book for review, please contact: Stephanvonclinkerhoffen@gmail.com or telephone +44 1242 604728

Full resolution images available at <http://www.stephanvonclink.com/press.html>

Website <http://www.stephanvonclink.com/>